How TC2000 can help you. Trading and investment apps are designed for people looking to manage their finances and the investments that they have in the stock market. Most of these apps have several, but sometimes not all of the features mentioned above. For example, they often lack tools to assist you in setting rules for the automatic trading, or an easy-to-use place to keep your watchlists and notes. TC2000 is a smart, comprehensive, and super-intuitive suite for every trader, investors, or money manager. Whether you manage your personal funds or your portfolio/business, it is the most sophisticated, yet

What's New in the TC2000?

Trading app, market watchlists, and processes automation TC2000 is a world-class trading application that is suited for all people who take trading and stock market analysis very seriously. The tool is designed for all kinds of users and offers such complex features that you won't need to cross-match data and statistics with any external sources/references. It has a simple interface and the sales people were courteous, however, they seemed to have little understanding of the software (like they should). Based on the training I had received, I should have been able to get this thing going after about 5 hours of training. Why do we need this? Because we didn't have the time to complete the work and I have a vacation coming up in a few days. TC2000 was designed and developed by a fantastic company, Prologistics. They are a great company to work with, and the software is first class. What I like about this product: The charts and features are easy to navigate and understand. The app is very robust and what I like is you can use it right on your computer. You don't need to install additional software. What I don't like about this product: Some of the terms and functions are not fully explained and we had some technical issues that required a bit of tweaking. What I like about this product: I like that I can log in to this application on my smartphone to monitor my portfolio.

What I don't like about this product: I am only able to view a small percentage of my portfolio. The screen allows you to choose the percent of the portfolio you wish to view, however it doesn't give you a way to expand the screen to a larger portion of your portfolio. The double click function to enlarge the screen to a larger portion is not available. What I like about this product:

This product is an excellent tool for the novice trader. It teaches you how to trade using a variety of technical and fundamental models. I like that they have two diversified portfolios for everyone to trade. The education section was very helpful. What I don't like about this product: This product is aimed at the complete novice and very advanced trader. As with any trading platform, it is a professional service. If you are not willing to pay the price for that level of service, I suggest you look at smaller more affordable software. What I like about this product: The trading apps offered are perfect for the beginner
