Guide No review available yet Sakura Clicker, the latest pick-up-and-play mobile game based on the anime, games, and manga franchise 'Pretty much anyone knows who Naruto is', has finally entered its beta phase and it's time to get our hands on our favorite Egyptian princesses costume! Name : Sakura Clicker Platforms : iOS (iPhone and iPad) Price : App Store Released : November 24, 2014 Find out more about the Sakura Clicker game at Features A free-to-play Japanese game that is set in the animated series which is currently airing in Japan. Other features include: Global leaderboard (what... like a, thing...?) 24-49 levels - Much better than the other 50-110. Except, I don't think there's going to be so much more after that. The time limit might be too long for some more savvy players, but I don't think that's too hard to beat. Spoiler warning! - There's possibly a large spoiler of the series. As the Sakura Clicker title suggests, this is a game played with Sakura. To start off, you need to choose one of 8 different female characters to control - each with their unique abilities and moves. The size of your character is determined by the number of points you collect, so to progress through the story, there
